

ROAD MAP TO COURAGE

Speaker Introduction

Dear Client: This is a generic Introduction that can be readily customized to refer to clients within your own industry. Simply e-mail or telephone our office for an Introduction that will assure Ellen's credibility with your group.

Tired of the corporate life, Ms. Ellen Peneski officially took a leave of absence, packed up her belongings and prepared for a nine-month sabbatical. This leave bloomed into an eighteen-month solo journey throughout the world – a journey that led to an understanding of courage and what it takes to uncover it.

Today, Ellen uses her riveting adventure stories and never-ending enthusiasm to help others create the courage necessary for success. An expert in courageous leadership, Ellen combines her travel insights along with her 15+ years of professional experience in the finance, automotive, academic and software industries to create an inspirational and motivational platform to teach others how to fully embrace life through the power of excellence.

Ellen presents and facilitates courageous journey's for women's groups, at business conferences and at national high schools. She has just finished writing her first book of the Road Map Series – Road Map to Courage: Directions for Success through Travel.

Get ready to learn how to embrace the power of personal courage!

Please welcome....ELLEN PENESKI
